

Residential Care Workers

AiMHi - Prince George Association for Community Living has exciting opportunities for Full/Part time and casual employment providing support to people with developmental disAbilities. AiMHi is one of the largest Community Living sector employers in the province, and employs in excess of 400 people. We look to promote from within, and career advancement is encouraged by the organization.

AiMHi values caring and dedicated employees. If this describes you, we welcome your application. AiMHi is a BCGEU unionized employer and offers a competitive wage structure as well as a comprehensive benefits package.

College and University Students

- Are you looking for meaningful and rewarding summer employment?
- Do you want a job that offers better than minimum wage?
- Do you like helping people?
- Are you looking for a summer job that looks great on a resume?

At AiMHi we support people with developmental disAbilities by helping them to live the lives they want to live, and participate in activities that they enjoy.

You could help someone make dinner one day and help them learn how to bowl the next. You could help someone make a new friend on Monday and then learn some sign language on Tuesday.

Everyday at AiMHi is different from the next!

AiMHi looks to retain students during the school year. If you are attending College or University in Prince George we will work with you and customize a work schedule that meets your education needs. This allows you to work a little while going to school, and keeps a little money coming in to pay for books, or to have a night out.

If you have questions about a career at AiMHi, please feel free to contact us at human.resources@aimhi.ca

Three ways to apply

By e-mail at: human.resources@aimhi.ca.

By Fax: (250) 564-6801

In Person at:
950 Kerry Street
Prince George, BC

Visit our web site at www.aimhi.ca to learn more about AiMHi and Community Living.

Consider the Location: Prince George, BC

Located near the geographic centre of British Columbia, Prince George is home to over 80,000 people. It is the major centre for Northern British Columbia and a service centre for surrounding communities. Prince George is home to UNBC and several colleges as well as a Regional Medical Center.

Home ownership in Prince George is a reality for most middle income earners. The average price of a single family home is $191,500 compared to $741,644 in the GVA. Combine affordable housing, a 15 minute max commute to work, and a multitude of cultural, entertainment, and recreational activities and you have found the city that will support a balanced lifestyle for you and your family.

For more information on Prince George visit www.city.pg.bc.ca

For more information on AiMHi and current employment opportunities visit our web site at www.aimhi.ca

AiMHi is an equal opportunity employer.