

Delta Community Living Society

COMMUNITY SERVICES MANAGER

Delta, British Columbia

Are you looking for an exciting leadership role within the Not-For-Profit sector that's rewarding both personally and professionally?

Are you passionate about improving the quality of life of people with developmental disabilities?

Would you like to create opportunities for people with developmental disabilities to participate as contributing citizens of their community?

Delta Community Living Society (<http://www.dcls.ca>) is seeking a fun, energetic individual for the position of Community Services Manager. This position is located in Delta, BC. Delta Community Living Society (DCLS) is a community-focused not-for-profit organization that was established in 1963 to support individuals living with developmental disabilities and their families to improve their quality of life. DCLS provides the highest quality of support services through group homes, day programs, recreational programs, home sharing and respite services.

The Community Services Manager position requires a strong, community-focused leader capable of championing change, coaching staff and who has a demonstrated interest in community involvement. Reporting directly to the Executive Director, the Community Services Manager will play a key strategic role in the operations of DCLS. The ideal candidate will have demonstrated experience managing a team and outcomes, developing strong partnerships and creating high level reports. Experience working in community living and/or social services is preferable, as well as a background working with funding agents.

DCLS takes pride in providing a flexible work environment along with the benefit of knowing that the work undertaken by the organization makes a difference in the lives of many. Recruiting on behalf of DCLS, Meyers Norris Penny is currently accepting applications for the position of Community Services Manager. Individuals interested in contributing within the community and to the long-term success of DCLS are encouraged to apply.
